Marlboro Meeting for Spiritual Sharing and Worship

First Gathering: Tuesday October 9 at 7 PM at the Meeting House

Dear Friends,

There has been much discussion about preserving the Marlboro Meeting House and ways to maintain it as a vibrant community space.

A group of us, with the blessing of the Meetinghouse Church deacons and trustees, have been developing the idea of a weekday evening gathering of folks from our community in addition to the Sunday church services, for at least part of each year. These gatherings, weekly or biweekly, will be an opportunity for us to share and to learn and to be together at a deeper level.

We will be gathering in a circle in the front left portion of the sanctuary and begin our time together in song, followed by silence and speaking from the heart, and then close with silence and shared song. All of this will be informed by and embrace the many spiritual traditions that we bring, and there will be no one leader.

Although this first gathering will not include children, we are looking forward to exploring together how children can be involved, the celebration of important days and other special events, and ways in which we can join together with the Sunday Meeting House church a few times a year.

Any funds collected will go to covering costs (e.g. heating), maintaining the Meeting House building and perhaps also supporting other causes we might choose.

We're looking forward to this new adventure together.

Sincerely,

Louise Cochran, Kirstin and William Edelglass, Craig Hammond, Andrea Howe, Jim Levinson, Ede Thomas, and Liz Vick

The News from Marlboro Cares By Jennifer MazurIMPORTANT NEW DATES & TIMES

Senior Wellness Clinic – NEW SEPTEMBER DATE: SEPTEMBER 15TH

So that everyone can go to the Marlboro Fair, the September Wellness Clinic will be held September 15th from 9 to 11 a.m. Marlboro Cares encourages our senior residents to take advantage of the fabulous nursing services offered free of charge here in town at the Health Center at Marlboro College. Services offered include trimming toenails, ear cleaning, blood pressure checks, nutrition advice, and other questions answered. Susan Kunhardt and the other volunteer nurses do not diagnose, nor order treatment, but they can consult with you and give excellent advice. Services are by appointment only. Call Marlboro Cares at 258-3030 to make your appointment at least 2 days before the clinic. Transportation is available upon request. The next Wellness Clinics will be held September 15th and October 13th.

Tai Chi classes – NEW TIME BEGINNING IN SEPTEMBER: 5:15 to 6:15

Tai Ji classes with Cielle Tewksbury are in full swing, enjoyed by many of us. If you are between 25 and 105, you may still join the classes up until the end of September. The pace is slow and relaxed, with enough repetition to make you comfortable to join in and feel the peace and health benefits. No one will be allowed to join the class after September, as there will be too much to learn by then. Classes are Thursdays from 5 to 6 pm at the Outback at Marlboro Elementary School for the remainder of August, then change to 5:15 to 6:15 in September. Cost is $10 per week, with a sliding scale available by speaking with Cielle.

Senior Lunches -- Senior Lunches will begin again starting October 5th. They will continue to be at 11:30 the first Friday of each month, except January. Cost will continue to be $3.00. Senior Lunches are open to any self-defined "Senior" in Marlboro. Come visit with your neighbors and enjoy a yummy time. Surprise guest speakers and/or performers may likely join us, as well. Call 258-3030 to make your reservation 2 days prior to the lunch.

Marlboro Fair – Marlboro Cares is happy to provide rides to the Marlboro Fair on September 8th. Remember to call 258-3030 at least 2 days ahead to reserve a ride.

For more information about any of our programs or to sign up for the Senior Wellness Clinic or Tai Chi classes, please call the Marlboro Cares number, 258-3030. Someone will return your call within 24 hours. Also, if you are someone in need of a ride or other non-emergency help, please be assured that Marlboro Cares has a wonderful pool of volunteers available to help. Simply call 258-3030 and leave a message.

While many Marlboro residents have the pleasure of high speed Internet, there are still many without. To that end, we are trying to get a count on how many people are still waiting for Fairpoint to provide them with service. If you are still without Internet would you be so kind as to let us know, either by mail, phone, or ironically enough, email?

Select Board Seeks Help From Fellow Residents to Fill the Membership of the Development Review Board and Planning Commission

The Town needs a larger membership on both the Development Review Board (DRB) and the Planning Commission (PC). The DRB is a board with five members and four alternates. It currently has four members and two alternates.

The DRB is the municipal body authorized and delegated to uphold and interpret the Marlboro Zoning Regulations and Marlboro Subdivision Regulations when required. The Board reviews complete applications for proposed projects at public hearings.

The Planning Commission prepares a municipal plan, zoning bylaws and subdivision regulations, makes recommendations on matters of land development, conservation, and preservation, and participates in a regional planning program.

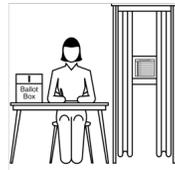

The PC is a nine-member board and currently has a membership of eight, but could really use another person. Present members are often busy in their own jobs and cannot always attend meetings. A full membership would assure not only a necessary quorum, but also a critical mass to move forward on needed planning issues, including zoning.

Right now the Select Board sees the work by both the Planning Commission and the Development Review Board as of critical importance to the future of our community. We are experiencing a great deal of pressures for growth here in town. Those pressures may be quiet and incremental. However, they are adding up to have a potentially substantial impact on our future here. We encourage any resident with either experience in municipal paid or volunteer work or with simply a sincere interest in being of help to contact us or the Development Review Board and/or the Planning Commission about how you can join. Those Boards would make recommendations to the Select Board for membership appointment.

Contact the Select Board at marlboroselectboard@gmail.com or by mail at Select Board, PO Box 518, Marlboro, VT 05344. The select board meets every second and fourth Thursday at 6:00 PM at the Town Office, unless otherwise noted.

KELECTION NEWS from Nora Wilson, Town Clerk

The Statewide Primary takes place on Tuesday, August 28. The polls will be open in the Town Office from 10 AM to 7 PM. The last day to register to vote is Wednesday, August 22 at 5 PM. The Town Clerk's Office will be open until 5 that day. The last day to request an early/absentee ballot is Monday, August 27 at 4 PM.

PLEASE CALL THE TOWN CLERK WITH ANY QUESTIONS.
Monday, Wednesday, Thursday 9 AM – 2 PM
254-2181

I would like to say a word about write-in voting. Every voter has the right to choose to write-in a name instead of voting for the candidate whose name is printed on the ballot or if no candidate is running for an office. The ballots for this primary have many races with no candidates' names printed on the ballots. I do not want to discourage anyone who wants to exercise the right to write in a candidate. And I would like to ask that you consider the process of counting before you make a joke by writing in a cartoon character or your child or ... Every single write-in vote must be tallied; every tallied vote must be transferred to a summary sheet; and all the data on the summary sheet must be transferred to the Official Return of Votes which must be express- mailed on the day following the election. All of us who work counting will appreciate your courtesy

Marlboro Alliance News by Michelle Holzapfel

Enjoy delicious local roasted corn and support the Alliance. See you at the Fair!

THE SUMMER SALE REPORT

This year's Summer Sale, our main fundraiser, made a whopping $4,791. (Clothing: $1,989 and Treasures: $1,953.) The Bake Sale brought in a record $494. We especially appreciate the use of the Town House and Meetinghouse. And thanks to David Elliott for set-up and use of the Town's Electronic Sign. Whether you dropped off a lovely baked good, spent hours on-site, or helped spread the word, we couldn't have done it without you. Thank you all for your help. And a special thanks to Veronica Brelsford for donating the proceeds from her Saturday house & yard sale. If there's something you really loved doing, please sign up next summer, and recruit a friend too. The Alliance will be able assist even more community members this year thanks to you.

THE HURRICANE & THE ALLIANCE: ONE YEAR AFTER

In the aftermath of Irene, Alliance members volunteered in many ways to help Emergency Management meet the needs of community members. Thanks again to everyone who volunteered in small and large ways. A special "Augur Hole Road Edition" of the Mixer was sent with news of volunteer helpers, and an invitation to residents to attend the Fair to meet with FEMA reps.

At the Fair, the Alliance received donations in the Community Tent, and our Volunteer Fire Department generously gave the proceeds of their raffle to our Emergency Fund. In the course of a few weeks, the Alliance received Emergency Fund donations of over $12,000. In addition, $5,000 was forwarded by the Vermont Community Foundation from the proceeds of a Phish benefit. Four Alliance volunteers formed a Disaster Fund subcommittee to draft guidelines and determine who most needed help. The aid was a token of help, but substantial enough to be useful and boost morale. A member of the committee also joined the Southeastern Vermont Long-term Recovery committee as a board member. Four businesses of Marlboro residents were helped immediately. One family that lost their home also received a check and donations of clothes and bedding within days of their loss. The committee put in many hours calling, visiting and identifying those in need. One check was returned with the message that it should be given to someone else more in need.

In all, $15,200 was paid out in 30 separate checks. None of these people asked for help; their need was referred to us by others.

The Alliance also organized support and thanks to the Marlboro Road Crew and its contract helpers. Thank you notes were sent to all the road crew workers and contractors by Marlboro School students. In December we also celebrated the Road Crew at a Potluck, square dance, and fundraiser for a thank-you bonus. One year later, it is amazing how well they've restored and improved our town's roads.

We look back with gratitude and respect for the collective generosity, goodness and grit of our beloved community.

There is still $2300 left in the Irene fund. You can still contact the Alliance if you need help, or know of someone who does. Contact Treasurer Pam Burke at: marlboroalliance@gmail.com or by phone: 275-2809.

A MESSAGE TO MARLBORO COMMUNITY NON-PROFITS/ARTISANS/BUSINESSES/EDUCATORS

Here's a great opportunity to connect directly with Marlboro College students: the Stuff to Do Fair, Tuesday, August 28th from 3-4 pm in the Dining Hall. Sign up with Sunny Tappan to reserve a table, put out a sign-up sheet and present info on volunteer opportunities. suntap@marlboro.edu

If you miss this, the Alliance is working on a new initiative to increase links between the College community and the wider Town community. Watch for more in future Mixers!

The Alliance is deeply grateful for the generous donation from this year's annual Town Benefit Concert. The funds will enable continued support of Marlboro Cares and its many programs, the Mixer's vital communications, and the Alliance's Community Support Fund and year-round Events.

Marlboro Alliance Scholarship Fund Appeal:

The Scholarship Fund is much depleted after this year's record giving: 6 college grants, one high school and 22 elementary school summer activity scholarships. Watch your mailbox for our appeal letter this Fall. We need your help.

News From the Poetry Studio by Ann Gengarely

Creative Writing Classes For Adults Tuesday and Thursday Evenings with Ann Gengarely, 242 Piney Brook Way (off Church Hollow Road)

Even as many of us are gathering basil to make one more batch of pesto, we are contemplating a change of season. Nature seems to be telling us to “turn inward,” as the poet Rainer Maria Rilke advised, and reflect on the passing of time.

At The Poetry Studio, people ranging in age from late twenties to elders gather to “slow down;” to listen to that part of themselves that so easily becomes forgotten in our busy lives. We write and share, remembering who we are, for as the Mexican poet, Octavia Paz, claimed: “if we forget poetry, we will forget ourselves.”

Writing poems, stories-- letters to people lost to us-- we create a community that is both intimate and sacred. The poet Denise Levertov writes about experiences “felt by the poet intensely enough ... that he (she) is brought to speech.” Again and again we witness how, when someone discovers what it is she needs to write about, that person also remembers her authentic voice. Good writing usually springs from necessity: the writer has something he needs to say, whether it’s in a poem, a story, a letter.

As Brenda Ueland wrote in If You Want To Write, “Everybody is talented because everybody who is human has something to express...” Some people join our community never having written a poem or story. Some have written in private. Many come because they need a space that invites slowness, a landscape where whatever material is begging for a voice has a chance to grow. By the end of the evening we all are in awe of not only the writing that has been born, but as importantly, by the deep sense of connection we create by speaking through the unique language of poetry and story. We become witnesses to each others’ inner voices. And in this fast paced world, what a gift that is!

Especially poignant is the community that is born in our adult writing groups. As one participant remarked: “we have the rare opportunity to know one another in ways we never would otherwise.” The particular language of poetry and story invites a knowing often denied in ordinary conversation.

No words can do justice to the depth of our experience at The Poetry Studio: in a world where we can often feel alone and isolated, many discover that in spite of each of us having lived different “stories,” we share similar emotional landscapes. And so we sit together, creating a human circle—a circle of humanity that makes us feel less alone in the world and creates light during the darkest months.

Classes meet on Tuesday evenings beginning November. Classes are also offered on Thursday evenings starting mid-January. For all classes we begin our first circle at 6:15 and end our last circle at 9:00.

For registration or to find out more information contact Ann Gengarely at 257-8972 or agengar@sover.net.

Recycling at the Marlboro Community Fair by Arlene Hanson

The Marlboro Community Fair has been trying to keep our carbon footprint low by using the WSWMD recycling stations for all trash brought to the Fair. Food vendors are encouraged to use as little non-consumable products as possible; when non-consumables are needed, we ask that they be paper products, wooden skewers, or corn-based items that can be commercially composted.

The three bins on the recycle stations will be well marked to indicate how to sort your refuse. This works best when someone is at the bins to assist when needed to ensure that we minimize our landfill waste.

The Fair is looking for some volunteers to staff these stations. The hours will qualify as community service hours for any BUHS students. Please contact the Fair Committee with your interest in helping by emailing marlborofair@gmail.com.

The News from MES by Francie Marbury

The school bell's ringing! Marlboro School starts at 8:15am on Wednesday, August 29 and a New Year's Eve potluck will be held Monday, August 27 at 5:30 to welcome us all to the new year.

We especially welcome our new students and families. Kindergartners include Alex DiMarino, Bridon Whitney, Dante Bingham, Roxanne Burt, Kolby Warner, Seth Masterson, Maise Sperling, Annika Shiman, Leo Mousseau, Matthew Montgomery, and Juno Schaeffer. Teacher Ellen Martyn has returned from a leave spent traveling the world and is looking forward to visiting each of the children at home before their first day on September 4th. Judy Jarzombek-Lang and her students welcome Rosalie Smith, Sean vonRanson, and Jasmine and Jordan Wainwright, to the Primary class. Amelia Smith and Genevieve Wainwright will join Erica Morse and her 3rd/4th grade students. David Holzapfel's class welcomes Logan Makay and Makayla Smith. We're starting the year with 86 students.

Marlboro Ventures, under the direction of Rose Watson, starts a second year of after school programs with great activities such as computer programming, mountain biking, zoo Leg-o's, Fire and Stone, badminton, ultimate Frisbee, rock/wall climbing, rock (different kind of rock!) band, dance squad, puppet making, spelling team, and dance party planning. If you have an activity you'd like to offer, our 21st Century Grant enables us to pay you to lead it. Please contact Rose at 254-2668, ext 4.

Marlboro School is lucky to have such a supportive community and we hope you'll stop by to get to know us better. This year All School Sing will be held on Wednesdays at 8:25. Please join us!

The News from the Meeting House School by Patti Donnelly

And so it goes...another summer comes to an end and another school year begins! This is a favorite time of year for me, albeit, a busy time. Official paperwork is checked over, curriculum planned, supplies ordered and home visits scheduled. We had our first Board meeting of the year in early August. This work of MHS teachers and board members is fueled by great enthusiasm and filled with anticipation for a wonderful school year! MHS will have 8 sweet students in the classroom this year. The ages range for 2.9 years to 5 years old.

MHS has a new assistant teacher, Allison Williamson. Allison was previously a teacher at the Greenfield Center School in Massachusetts. Allison is a Marlboro resident and an alumni of Marlboro College. We look forward to a spectacular year together helping the children make friends, learn new skills and grow in confidence as they enter the larger world outside the home.

If you would like to be a substitute teacher for MHS, please call 257-0801. We always need substitutes and we will be so excited to hear from you! Requirements are to be patient, attentive and kind. The children and the teachers would love to have someone from the community be involved with the school in this intimate way.

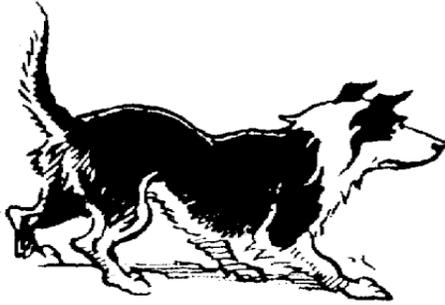

The Meeting House School will continue hosting its playgroup for children under three and their caregivers this fall. The playgroup meets on Friday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 at the school. It is free and a wonderful way to meeting other parents and small children in town. We hope you'll join us! For more information, you can contact Robin MacArthur at 258-2648, macarthur.rob@gmail.com.

Missing a Mutt? Feline Fiascoes? Call Marlboro's Animal Control!

Hello to all Marlboro residents, I'm Adam Katrick, and I was recently appointed by the Select Board to serve as the town's Animal Control Officer (or ACO for short). I have lived in Marlboro since 2003 when I came to study wolf biology and writing at Marlboro College, and my partner and I stayed in town after graduating. I'm an incurable canine nut, a carpenter, and an EMT with the fire department.

During the few short months I've been on the job, I've already assisted with loose hogs on Cowpath 40, resolved an unfortunate dog-bite incident, and reunited a lost dog with his owner. I've also had the opportunity to meet and train with other ACOs in our area.

Even in our small town we have hundreds of domestic animals and even more wild animals – which promises that I shall never have a dull moment! I am here to help anyone in town with animal concerns, whether it be a lost pet or an aggressive dog. In addition, I can connect townsfolk with a network of animal professionals: veterinarians, wildlife specialists, and rescue groups. While it is my job to deal with conflicts and animal emergencies, it is also my duty to share information about where residents can get help with their four-legged friends. No one should hesitate to call me or email me with any questions or concerns.

Adam Katrick, (cell) 802-272-0093, email: marlboroaco@gmail.com

A Note About Simple Yoga from Casey Deane

For me yoga is a place to find alignment of breath, body and mind; the act of engaging in asana, postures, is the doorway into presence and integration of self. In my classes, postures are not the feats of an acrobat or a pretzel wannabe. The Simple postures performed are a place to bring your life and body into balance. If you cannot touch your toes or sit on the floor cross-legged you're not alone. We can and do modify postures and use props. And, YOU will still be doing yoga!

In classes, students are guided into a greater awareness of their breath and body; different Simple breathing techniques are utilized to energize the body or calm the mind. Classes end with a ten minute guided relaxation to integrate the work that's been done.

Finally, my classes are classes. They are a place for you to learn about and to practice yoga by engaging in asana (postures), by asking questions, and being supported developing a practice that works for and serves YOU.

Motto: No pain, no pain!

Simple Yoga classes ARE: accessible, gentle & safe, student focused, inviting, relaxed
are NOT: a competition, acrobatics training, a performance, a fashion show, rigid

Fall Session to begin late September, early evenings; days/times to be announced; contact Casey Deane for more information or to get your name on the class list. Sessions offered by donation as space allows. 802-254-7724 or casey65@myfairpoint.net.

Come and Honor a Marlboro Kid Who Went to Help the Poor in India and Stuck With It! by Jim Levinson

Calcutta Kids 10th Anniversary Celebration and Benefit

Friday September 7 (during Gallery Walk); 5:30 to 8 PM

Centre Church Parlor, 193 Main St, Brattleboro

Noah Levinson who lives on South Road in Marlboro and who attended Marlboro College, was inspired to provide desperately needed health care to mothers and young children in the slums of Calcutta India after spending two summers working with Mother Teresa.

In 2002, Noah founded Calcutta Kids which, since that time, has had dramatic effects in reducing infant and maternal mortality, improving pregnancy outcomes and reducing malnutrition. Noah, together and his group of committed community health workers from these very slum areas, have been recognized by United Nations agencies as a model for grass roots organizations seeking to reduce human deprivation and empower low income families.

To celebrate the 10th anniversary of Calcutta Kids, Noah, his new Indian bride Evangeline and others from Calcutta Kids will be speaking and presenting program information. Photos by Paul Kidder will be sold or auctioned. Delicious refreshments will be provided. Noah will lead the Moment for Peace in the same space between 5:30 and 6:00.

The 10th Anniversary Celebration and Benefit is sponsored by the Brattleboro Area Interfaith Initiative and the Brattleboro Area Interfaith Clergy.

From the Marlboro School Board by Jen Carr

The beginning of the school year is always an exciting time! The Marlboro School Board is looking forward to the upcoming year and wants to remind our fellow community members that we are always interested in hearing from you about our work. This year your School Board Members are Gussie Bartlett, Will Brooke-deBock and Jen Carr. Our contact information can be found on both the Town and School websites. Please feel free to be in touch with us individually or to bring your ideas to a School Board meeting.

The Marlboro School Board meets on the first Monday of every month at 6pm unless otherwise posted. Our meetings are always warned on the MES website, as well as on the School bulletin board, at Sweeties, and at the Town Office. We set aside time at the beginning of each meeting for members of the community to participate and you are always welcome to meet with us at this time. If you let us know before the meeting that you plan to attend it is helpful because we can then set the agenda accordingly.

If you ever have questions about the work of the School Board or want to let us know you are joining a meeting, please contact our Chair, Jen Carr, at jcarr@windhamcentralboard.org. You can also keep up with all the activity going on at MES and learn about the great the work our students are doing throughout the year by visiting the school website at www.marlboroschool.net. We hope that all of our students have a fun, challenging and adventurous year of learning at the Marlboro Elementary School. Best wishes for a great fall!
